NORTH READING PASTOR NAMED MONSIGNOR

NORTH READING. Rev. John J. Lane, pastor of St. Theresa's church since 1949, has been raised to the office of Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor by Pope John XXIII.

Announcement of the elevation of 20 Greater Boston priests to the rank was made Monday by Richard Cardinal Cushing during a press conference at his Brighton residence.

The new monsignor, one of two brothers in the priesthood, was born in Cambridge in 1894, attended elementary schools there, received his diploma from Boston College High School. He served in the United States Navy during World War I. Monsignor Lane received his degree from Boston College in 1920. He was ordained five years later on June 5, 1925, at Holy Cross Cathedral, Boston, by the late William Cardinal O'Connell.

His first assignment was to St. Joseph's parish in Ipswich and he later was transferred to St. Bridget's church in Framingham Center before going to St. John's parish in Canton. Prior to coming to St. Theresa's on January 31, 1949, he served for 20 years as pastor of St. Peter's Church in Lowell.

He made a host of friends among peoples of all faiths during his pastorate there. He served for 15 years as chaplain of American Legion Post 87 and was Middlesex County chaplain during the period when Daniel H. Shay of Park Street West was County Commander and Tax Collector Sherman Murphy, also of Park Street West, served as County Sergeant-At-Arms.

The newly-elevated monsignor also served as state American Legion chaplain, spiritual director of the Lowell District Holy Name Societies, spiritual director of the Nocturnal Adoration Society and chaplain of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. He was accorded a life membership in the Lowell American Legion post because of his outstanding work and devotion in behalf of the organization.

When he took up the local pastorate, the parish comprised approximately 200 families representing an estimated 2,000 souls. Since that time, it has grown to 900 families consisting about 3,700 souls. Under his supervision, the parish constructed a new church on Winter Street which was dedicated by Cardinal Cushing last June 25.

He has endeared himself with representatives of all religions during his stay in this community which he now serves with two curates, Rev. John R. Lizio and Rev. Dennis F. Twomey.

A sister, Miss Nora T. Lane, resides in Cambridge while his brother, Rev. Thomas M. Lane, is pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Newburyport.

SHORT CIRCUITS in WILMINGTON by BETTY DOWNS OL 8-2907

This week, I would like to begin by wishing all my readers and contributors a Merry Christmas and--please--take it easy on the highways during the holidays--if you are reading this--I can't spare you!

Dugout #303, National Order of Rats visited North Reading San. last Sunday afternoon to conduct a Christmas party for patients there. The group was accompanied, of course by Santa Claus who distributed gifts to all the youngsters. Dolls which were presented to the girls were gifts of the Marlboro Auxiliary DAV Juniors.

James Shine of the local DAV Post and Tommy Hayes of Reading Post were chairman and co-chairman of the committee in charge.

Mrs. Chipman (our librarian) has announced that the library will be closed on Saturday, Dec. 24 and Monday, Dec. 26.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, there will be a regular meeting of St. Thomas Sodality and CDA. A Christmas musicale directed by Estelle Shelley will conclude the evening program.

Sympathy is extended to Paul Doucette of Westdale Ave., upon the death of his mother, Mrs. Mabel Doucette of Chelsea.

After the rush of the holiday season, the let-down frequently leaves us a little bored. Members of the Knights of Columbus are offering you a cure for this--why not plan to attend their giant whist party on Jan. 19 at Villanova Hall?

Tickets are available from John O'Brien, OL8-4329 or Joe Gurliaccio, OL8-3226.

Here is a notice with an 'eye to the future.' It has been announced that the next DAV Convention will be held in Worcester, the home city of State Commander, George Wells, on June 30, July 1 and 2.

If you don't already have your Christmas tree up, Chief Boudreau of the fire department would like to remind you of the necessity of having it sprayed with fire-proofing material. This operation will be done for you at the fire station. It only costs a few cents and takes just a few minutes--it could prevent a tragedy.

Did you know that Huntley's Diner in the center, operated for so many years by the same man, has recently come under new management? Joseph Babine and Christine Ethier will operate the establishment as co-managers of the B and E Lunch.

Town Manager Cecil Lancaster has highly commended town departments for the work done by them during last week's blizzard. Men worked around the clock to keep roads open and 'all things considered' did a very good job. If you don't think so, perhaps you should drive over the roads in some surrounding communities.

I tried to make a hill in a nearby city on Saturday evening. The road was so narrow as to be nearly impassable--the sides had not been pushed back and ruts which had hardened--well--just try some of these other towns, you'll hurry home.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Squibb of 1 Suncrest Ave., are happy to announce the arrival of their daughter, Sue Ellen who was born on Dec. 14 at Winchester Hospital. Sue Ellen has two older sisters and a brother, Janet, Caroline and Lee.

Grandparent honors are bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. Lee Squibb of Reading and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allen of Medford.

The next meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Wilmington-Tewksbury Hebrew

Community Center will be held January 5. All members are urged to be on hand. Following a brief business meeting, refreshments will be served and a social hour held.

STRIKES & SPARES

by Tania Wellman

This week your reporter covered new grounds, or lanes in Burlington. Joe Foster, manager of these new alleys for this column. We made our first visit, and by no means our last to Lucci, American Bowling Congress champion for 1960.

Vince was at the alleys all week giving free instruction to beginners, and hints and advice to the more seasoned bowlers. Mr. Lucci has bowled 14-300 games, with six of them sanctioned by the A.B.C. in matches. Joe Foster mentioned that there is instruction every Thursday AM at 9:30. Will keep you posted on various bowlers there, starting next week.

The Wamesit Bowling Alleys in Tewksbury, are also most attractive to the eye. They boast of a league of 70 women called St. Dorothy's. Hazel O'Brien is leading this duck-pin bowling league with an average of 102.6. Mention also should be made that Hazel bowled in the 90's last year and has certainly brought herself way up! Helen Reardon finally rolled her first 100 string this season. Congratulations, Helen for breaking the ice! Carl Lenzillo of the Tewksbury Firemen's League set a new alley record with a blistering 192!

The American Legion Post #62 in Reading has its own alleys with automatic pin-setters. The Women's Auxiliary has a league of 24 bowlers. The top team at present is the Queens. Barbara Meuse leads the league with 305 for a triple and 127 for her single. The Gophers lead the men's league. Everett Packer has rolled 357 triple with Tom Blackley and Everett Packer tied for high single with 137. This is a candlepin league.

The Early Bird League had two girls that rolled over their average Monday, namely, Kay Hunt and Gloria Staples. This North Reading league (candlepin) boasts of many good bowlers. Selly Ward rolled a beautiful 131 single this week. Welcome back to Grace Scott, your team is glad you have returned.

The North Reading Couples league had a very successful Christmas banquet at the Stardust Lounge last Thursday evening. Vic Carbone won the large bowling plaque which was raffled off. Wonder why the floor felt slippery while dancing as the evening wore on? Was it really the floor, or???

Stet Hunt has been a real ball of fire lately in the league and is leading in both high average and high triple.

Glenn Lucia of the N.R.Y. M.C.A. Teeners Bowling league certainly deserves congratulations from young and old alike. He bowled a terrific 306 Sunday afternoon. How's that for a beginner bowler? I think I'll find a hole and hide as far as my bowling goes with these youngsters around.

A very Merry Christmas to all and memo to Frank DiStasio: look behind the sofa on Christmas morn, you will find a nice surprise that will help your bowling.

Holidays Can Be Dangerous! PRACTICE CAUTION TO PREVENT TRAGEDIES THIS CHRISTMAS!

DON'T give fire a place to start in your home during the holiday.

Follow these rules for a fire-safe Christmas: Use flame-proof decorations wherever possible. Keep your tree watered. Check lights for wear. Don't accumulate used wrapping paper. Don't leave lights on when away from home. Most important — be constantly alert for fire hazards.

DON'T forget to follow all of the safe driving rules during Christmas.

One careless moment can bring a lifetime of misery or a lost life! Roads are crowded; allow extra time to reach your destination. Children are on vacation too — watch for them. And, don't drive if you drink. Remember, careful driving demands both caution and courtesy.

On Christmas Eve, members of St. Thomas Senior CYO will go caroling. At 8:15 they plan to be at Deming Way and Chestnut Street; at 9 they intend to visit the Hathaway Acres area and at 9:30 will go to School St. Richard Longo, Rita Bevalaqua or Donald Marshall.

Members of the Luta O' Dadaka Campfire Girls (fifth graders) will conduct their Christmas party on Dec. 21 at 7 PM at the home of their leader, Mrs. Jesse Smith, 1 Baker St. Santa will be on hand and the girls will exchange gifts. Refreshments will be served and to top off the evening, carols will be sung.

Members of the above group went caroling on Tuesday evening, Dec. 20 at which time they favored residents of the McDevitt Nursing Home on Chestnut Street and citizens of Deming Way.

It is heartening to note that this time-honored custom has been picked up this year by two local groups. So many of us tend to commercialize the Holy Season that it seems nice to have one of the old-fashioned traditions come back into prominence.

Members of the Skating Club have announced the 'Holiday on Ice Speed Skating Championships', sponsored by the New England Skating Assoc., will be held on Silver Lake, next Monday, Dec. 26 at 1 PM.

Skaters are expected from all over New England, but this will not be on as large scale as the skating event held here last year.

Speaking of the Skating Club, members entered the Indoor Speed Skating Championship held at West Orange, N.J. recently and arrived home with several awards. Nancy Weinberg has been acclaimed the Midget Girls Champion while Janet Tighe, Pat Piske and Jeff Williamson also won high acclaim.

Members of the Wilmington Tewksbury Hebrew Community held a most successful Chanuka Party last Sunday with a goodly number of youngsters in attendance. The story of Chanuka was read by Shirley Shulman. Gifts were distributed to the youngsters and refreshments were served.

The Social Concerns Commission of the Methodist Church will sponsor four Sunday evening programs on World Peace, beginning Jan. 8 and continuing through the nineteenth.

The programs which will cover such topics as disarmament, race relations and the newly proposed 'Peace Corps' will begin at 8 PM and be followed by a coffee and discussion hour. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Members of the Middlesex Chapter DeMolay are still conducting a Christmas tree sale at Hobart's Garage on So. Main Street in Reading--if you don't have yours, why not go down and look around?

Raymond Patterson of Silver Lake Avenue, was a patient at St. John's Hospital for a brief time on Tuesday having suffered an apparent heart seizure, but luckily his condition improved and he has returned home. Mr. Patterson returned to his welding duties in Wakefield Wednesday morning, (that's right, the very next day)

On Friday, at 6:45 PM there will be a special meeting of St. Thomas' Altar Boys at Villanova Hall.

Harold McKelvey of Border Avenue, has announced his candidacy for Selectman.

With the exception of midnight Mass, services at St. Thomas' will be at the usual time on Christmas: 7, 8, 15, 9:30 and 10:45 and 12 noon.

Francis L. DeVita of 10 Lockwood Road will be kept very busy during January. He was sworn for service on the jury during the January 3rd sessions of Cambridge Superior Court, last Tuesday evening during the Selectmen's meeting.

The hiring of paid assistants to correct high school English themes is being taken under consideration by the Reading Council for Better Schools and the public school department. The idea was introduced by the committee whose representative quoted local teachers as saying they lacked the time to devote to correcting work of this type.

The search for volunteers is being conducted by questionnaires sent to all school children. Other questions are asked in the form, president of the council Guy H. Kennison informed the press.

A new outbreak of obscene telephone calls is being investigated by Reading Police. A series of three calls were received by local women between 2 and 3:30 Friday morning.

A few weeks ago a Woburn youth was arrested on the same charge.

Mary Ellen Bode, 13 Shady Hill Lane, is home from Pembroke College at Brown University, for the holidays. She was the Salutatorian of the Reading Memorial High School, class of Many Reading families plan to attend special Christmas services to be held Christmas Eve and Day. The individual churches have scheduled events to remind its members of the true significance of the Holy Day.

Rev. Frederick V. Hanley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver a special sermon, "God's Surprise In A Mystery", at the Christmas Day services.

Services of Holy Communion will be conducted at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd at 11 PM Christmas Eve and at 8, 9 and 10:30 AM, the next day.

Mrs. Eleanor P. Dwyer, 56 Curtis Street, is petitioning the Board of Appeals to allow her to operate a kindergarten to be constructed on Maple Ridge Road. Also she asks to be allowed to operate the same kindergarten at the St. Agnes Parochial School until the new building is ready for occupancy.

The Board will hear the plea on January 3 at 3 PM, in Room 2 of the Municipal Building.

Chief of Police Roland E. Ellis is powerless to take action against the Bo-Nette Coin operated laundry for violating the Sunday law. A temporary injunction was issued to the Chief by Judge Jennie Baron to prevent such a move until the ruling on the Sunday law by the Supreme Court.

The laundry has been given three ten dollar fines by the Woburn District Court for failure to comply with the law. The check was instigated by the Board of Selectmen.

John W. Rohner, 10 Williams Road, No. Reading, is the owner.

Over 200 books of fiction, non-fiction, biographies and information have been added to the shelves of the Reading Public Library during the past month. A list of these works are available at the check out desk in the main reading room. The books are also available to patrons.

Miss Massachusetts, Miss Brenda Crovo, was the guest of honor at the Reading Rotary Christmas party held at the Community Center early this week. Also entertaining were the 9-29ers a banjo group from Wakefield.

A dinner preceded the entertainment and dancing concluded the evenings festivities.

The attractive Christmas tree ornamenting the hall of the Reading Community Center was decorated by children at Vocational Center of the Eastern Massachusetts Association for Retarded Children. Gaily lighted, the tree bears ornaments made by the group.

The newly formed Junior Chamber of Commerce has reached 60% of its membership goal required for a charter membership.

ABOUT TOWN
By Donna-Lane Boudreau

Readingites don't know the cost yet of snow and ice removal in the winter's first blizzard but they are aware of the excellent work accomplished by public works employees under the supervision of Asst. Superintendent Ernest R. Watson. And when the local folks were struggling out of driveways to reach well plowed streets it's a fair chance they didn't even think of cost!...The blizzard reminds us that the young couple stranded in the town forest are reported well on the way to recovery. And a troop of Boy Scouts on a hike to the remote area Saturday came across the abandoned sedan. Drifts were in front and beside the vehicle, the youngsters reported.

..And again touching on the blizzard, local commuters to Boston via the B & M, wish the town fathers who acquired the buildings, would heat up, light up, and clean up the depressing depot.

Many frigid passengers frequented a nearby spa, rather than brave the heatless, lightless station. Now that everyone's familiar with the new dial system, isn't it terrific? With numbers duly noted in personal telephone listings, it's a breeze to make both friendly and business calls here and to distant points.

While friends seem to have accomplished the myriad tasks, attendant on this joyous season, we are late, late, late and so to the mailing of the tardy greetings and the final gift wrapping. And to you all...

At the last regular meeting of the South Tewksbury

Season's Greetings

THE LOWELL GAS COMPANY

UNIT PACKET PRODUCTS

Betterment, the membership present enjoyed their annual Christmas party under the direction of Mrs. Mary Nugent, chairman. All the usual goodies were present to make it a great evening for the group. Gifts were exchanged and all received something special along with a good time. To add to the festivities, Pres. Joseph Whelan was presented a beautiful cake as the group joined in and sang the traditional song on the occasion of his birthday.

The third and final session of the Hunter's Safety Course was held at the Tewksbury Rod and Gun Club Thursday, Dec. 15 at 6:30 PM. William E. Erickson, State Conservation Officer, and Kenneth R. Drolette, Assist. held a question and answer refresher period, after which written examinations were given. The following young men were issued their certificates for successfully passing their tests: Walter Baluta, Pres. and Bob Baratta, club sec., both of the junior league, plus John Hart Jr., Chris Johanson, Bill Bagehaw, Bob Baratta, Dave Tibbets, Al Kinnon, Ed McKinnon, John White, Jim Abernathy, Brian Hope and Jacob Kohanski. Also present at the class were Pres. Bill Martino, Chief Range Officer Joe Balutta, Range Officer, Charles Swanson, Paul Daigle and Ben Dzwilewski, NRA instructors. The club will hold another Safety Course in March of the coming year. Anyone interested in enrolling should call Bill Martino at ULI-2442.

The Women's Auxiliary of the club got underway at a meeting on Thursday Dec. 8, at the club headquarters on Chandler Street.

Mrs. Richard Bernat, presided at this meeting as chairman with Mrs. Charles Swanson acting as temporary secretary. The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, Jan. 12 at 8:30 PM. Any women interested in joining are invited to contact Mrs. Charles Swanson at ULI-9183 or Mrs. Richard Bernat ULI-9182. Before I leave the Rod and Gun Club, I want to again wish a couple of good friends up there a very happy holiday season--to Bill Martino, the president, goes my extra special wish--a man who has done so much to help the boys of our town to understand firearms, the fun in hunting but the dangers of mis-use, he'll always be a man who will get a tip of the hat from me; to Ben Dzwilewski, publicity man who reminds me each week that it is time to get the paper out because he is so prompt with the news; to Al Shamas, always an asset to any organization; Joe Balutta and the rest of the boys--keep up the good work for another year and teach Tewksbury's youth how to have fun on a hunting trip with no regrets.

There will be a Beatnik Blast which will be held at St. William's School Hall, sponsored by the CYO. The date is Dec. 28 with admission 50¢. All CYO members and their guests are invited to attend.

Congratulations go out this week to Mrs. Warren Turner of Main Street on her appointment as Neighborhood Chairman for the area of Tewksbury. The girls served by the various troops within town are indeed fortunate in having the Lovell Council make such a wise choice. Many good wishes Betty as you take over your new duties, as head of all Town Girl Scout Troops. While I'm congratulating Mrs. Turner, may I also say Merry Christmas to all the Leaders throughout Town who have been so faithful in calling in the news each week.

Can't forget the Boy Scout Leaders and Cub Scouts who also have been so cooperative. Before I leave the Scouts, I have been asked to put a request in the column; if you have an outgrown girl scout uniform, Brownie or Adult in usable condition would you please contact me as many girls are without uniforms--look around, maybe it is put away and you would make some girl very happy with it. Thank you in advance as to all my pleadings I always get an answer.

The weekly pre-teen dance scheduled for Friday night at the S.T.B.A. has been cancelled for this week due to the Christmas party which is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 24, and the committee has to get all in readiness for Santa. The annual Christmas party for the children of the membership as I reported last week is usually held on Sunday before Christmas but Santa has been very good to us and is going to take time from his busy schedule on Christmas Eve, to bring the gifts to the children of the Betterment. Time for the party is 2 PM and age limit is 14 years.

As I promised Tony Galinas at the Merrimac Advertiser, I'd wish him a Merry Christmas in the column--can't miss--see what a sweet editor I have--he printed it--told you--big people at the CRUSADER.

Tel. N.O. 4-3892

For nearly a year I have enjoyed the privilege of coming into your homes via the pages of the CRUSADER. It has been a most rewarding and sometimes enlightening experience for me. I can only hope that at times it has been the same for you who read it. It would be wonderful to meet each of you personally and extend the traditional greetings of the season. Since this is not possible, I will take advantage of the printed word again and say, "May the season be filled with joy and peace, and the new year hold everything that's good for you."

"May each of you inside North Reading, and all over the world, receive those most precious of gifts, a deep and abiding faith and a just and lasting peace."

Unfortunately the season has its problems too! Joseph Washburn, Jr., met with the Board of Selectmen to inform them that there were not enough bulbs to decorate the fir tree opposite the Police Station, and if they wanted bulbs on the lower part of the tree, it would be necessary for the town to purchase some more.

It seems that someone lacking in Christmas spirit spirited away about 50 bulbs from the lower part of the tree last year.

Saturday night about 40-seventh and eighth graders danced to records. Neal Topping started off the evening as disc jockey, aided by Nat Segal and others. Paul Peoples was the police officer on duty, and Mr. and Mrs. George Loud represented the Grange. Chaperoning were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Sewall and Mr. and Mrs. George Parks.

Members of St. Theresa's CYO enjoyed an evening of skating at the Skating Club of Boston, located in Brighton, Sunday evening. They made the trip by chartered bus, accompanied by their spiritual director, Rev. Dennis P. Twomey; George Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster.

Next event coming up for this group is the Lawrence Denney Dance at the Andover Country Club on Dec. 27.

Members of the St. Pilgrim Fellowship spread cheer over Sunday evening as sary calls. So, please, cut they went caroling at the homes of shut-ins of the town. Each shut-in was presented with a gift of candy. After caroling, the group adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Frazer for some yuletide refreshments and fun.

Girl Scout Leaders are reminded that the Jr. Camp Committee will hold its first meeting on Jan. 28, 1961 at 10 AM in the Fellowship Room of the Congregational Church in Reading. Each troop may send two representatives and bring back camp news to their troop. Troops should select their representatives as soon as possible.

It has been called to this correspondent's attention that the impression was erroneously given in this column that Gerald McCarthy, attorney for the Pond Club would be paid by the town, for a copy of the transcript of the Pond Club Hearing held two weeks ago.

The fee for an extra copy of a transcript of the stenotypist guild of Boston. Rudolph DeRosa had paid for a copy for the town of a previous hearing and Mr. McCarthy felt that since the town had called for this hearing upon a motion by Selectman Ryan, that Mr. DeRosa should not have to pay for the town's copy.

Mr. McCarthy's permission was necessary in order to release a copy for the town for the stenotypist was retained by he. However, the fee goes to the stenotypist.

Speaking of problems... Chief of Police E. Hudson Rodgers met with the Board of Selectmen also Thursday night to discuss a far more serious problem. On the Monday of the storm, the Police Department received 108 telephone calls, plus 102 on Tuesday, from people wanting to know if school would be held. While the police lines were tied up, with these calls Monday morning, a local doctor tried for nearly 20 minutes to get an emergency call through for an ambulance. The fire department also received many calls of this nature. A life could be lost or a home burned down.

Members of the St. Pilgrim Fellowship spread cheer over Sunday evening as sary calls. So, please, cut out the information below and attach it permanently in a prominent place in your home!

Official sources for 'no-school' announcements: Announcements will be made on the following radio stations between 7-8 AM! Boston-WHDH-805 KC; Boston-WBZ-1030 KC; Lawrence-WCCM-800 KC; and Lowell-WCAP-980 KC.

Fire sirens at the central fire station on Park St. will blow two blasts at 7 AM to indicate 'no school' at the high school, and two blasts at 7:30 AM to indicate 'no school' at the elementary schools. The North Reading Sanatorium will sound 4 short blasts, repeated three times, to signal 'no school' five minutes later.

PLEASE DO NOT CALL fire station, police station, bus contractors, superintendent of schools, etc.

Two lucky people who missed the fury of last week's northeaster were Dr. and Mrs. William Segal. They returned Friday from two weeks of sun and fun in Miami, Fla. Far from fun, though, was the trip back. They flew as far as Newark, N.J. where the plane had to circle several times before landing. The landing was even more nerve-racking, as the plane skidded into a snowbank. Passengers had to disembark through the pilot's door and walk up the runway to the terminal. The car ride from Newark was no improvement, with snow, rain and sleet following them all the way home. Commented Mrs. Segal, "It's good to be home!"

If you haven't purchased your Christmas tree, don't forget that the Middlesex Chapter of the Order of DeMolay is conducting its annual sale of trees at Hobart's Garage on South Main Street, Reading. Better hurry!

The North Reading Conservation Commission met with the Reading Conservation Commission recently and discussed their concern over the watershed resources of the two towns. Reading members have been wondering about what has been done along the Ipswich River in North Reading, as what is done downstream affects the river upstream. Members of the Reading Conservation Commission also expressed concern about the encroachment of our mutual boundary and its influence in the future.

A number of North Readingites have been patients at the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital, including Selectman William Doten, J. Turner Hood Jr., former superintendent of schools, and Dana Rowe Jr., of Elm St. We hope they are all able to be home for the holidays. Hope too that little Debbie Davis, of Elm St., is home from Children's Hospital in time for Santa's visit.

FOUNDATION ELECTS PRESIDENT

At its Annual Membership Meeting, Mr. Philip Atiyeh was re-elected President of the R.G. Haddad Foundation, New York City. This year the Foundation awarded 20 scholarship grants to 11 men and 9 women in eight states.

Miss Laurice Paglia of 199 Park Street, North Reading received her first grant this year. She is studying mathematics and teaching at Colby College and expects to graduate in June 1963.

Other officers elected were Edward Zraick, vice president; George Mallouk, treasurer and Albert Lian, secretary.

The newly elected president stated, "I am deeply grateful for the confidence placed in me and the capable officers who are to serve with me." "The support for the scholarship program," he added, "has been so enthusiastic I am confident the Foundation will award more grants in 1961 than ever before." Mr. Atiyeh concluded, "During my term of office every effort will be made to increase our membership to include all those who desire to participate in this gratifying work."

The R.G. Haddad Foundation a non-profit organization, with offices at 330-5th Ave

Betty Ryan, Christmas Banquet chairman of N.R., Sunday Niter Couples League, presenting Vic Carbone the Bowler's Prayer plaque won in a drawing.

The local Y sponsored two Christmas canteens, one Friday night at the High School for grades 9-12, and one Saturday night at Grange Hall for grades 7-8.

About 80 of the older group enjoyed dancing to a five-piece orchestra Saturday night, plus holiday refreshments served under the direction of Mrs. Charles Brown. Lester Levey was in charge and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Sewall and Mr. George Parks chaperoned. A beautifully decorated Christmas tree added to the festivities as the teenagers enjoyed the Mexican Hat dance, the bunny hop and an elimination dance.
